A Syllabus and General Guide for Narrative Pastoral Counseling
PM 712
Summer 2000

Burrell D. Dinkins, Th.D.
Johnson Chair of Pastoral Leadership

I. Course Description:

This course is designed as an examination of the theory and practice of a postmodern approach to counseling from the perspective of narrative. The process of authoring and reauthoring lives through stories will be examined from the disciplines of literature, psychology, Bible, theology, psychotherapy and spiritual direction.

II. General Goals: The goals of PM 712 are to help students:

1. Develop a basic understanding of the issues of postmodern theory and techniques of counseling.
2. Integrate narrative theory with the practice of narrative counseling.
3. Bridge the gap between exegesis and diegesis in Bible studies.
4. Examine the importance of asking timely, well formulated questions.
5. Explore how their own lives have been authored and discover ways to reauthor themselves from the perspective of the biblical metanarratives.
6. Discover the potential of a solution orientation to human concerns.
7. Discover ways to become practitioners of Narrative Counseling.

III. Prerequisite For the Course:

Before enrolling in this class students must have successfully completed PM 608 (Pastoral Care and Counseling or PM 654 (The Helping Relationship).

IV. Time: The class will meet Monday, May 29 (Memorial Day) – Friday, June 2, 8:00-12:00; 1:30-4:30.

V. A. Course Reading: A minimum of 1500 pages of reading in textbooks and research projects will be required.

B. Research Projects: Students will select a topic related to narrative studies for research and write a 12-15 page academic paper.

C. Practice Sessions: Students will be asked to practice narrative counseling skills in class sessions.

D. Final Exam. An open book take home exam will be used to evaluate academic knowledge and clinical skills.

Evaluation System:

The following percentages will determine the numerical and the letter grade.

30%	Research project
20%	Team role play and class discussion
20%	Reading report
30%	Final Exam

VII. Texts:

Coles, The Call of Stories

Monk, Winslade, Crocket and Epston: Narrative Therapy in Practice: The Archeology of Hope, Jossey Bass.
